

DEFENSE ACQUISITION UNIVERSITY
PQM 203, Preparation of Commercial Item Description
for Engineering and Technical Personnel

130318

Course Learning/Performance Objectives followed by its enabling learning objectives on separate lines if specified.

| | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Provided an example of a Commercial Item Description, the student should be able to provide constructive feedback based upon the Federal Standardization Manual, the DoD 4120.24-M, and SD-2, Commercial Item Descriptions. |
| | Provided options, correctly select the correct term to complete a definition of a Commercial Item Description. |
| | Provided a scenario and a document type decision tree; correctly determine if the use of a commercial item description is appropriate for the situation described. |
| | From a list of choices, select the current names of the allowable sections of a commercial item description. |
| | Provided descriptions of a Section of a commercial item description, match the description with the correct Section. |
| | Provided examples, correctly discriminate whether the example is a Regulatory Requirement, Product Conformance Provision, or Market Acceptance Criteria. |
| 2 | Provided with a statement of the users' needs and market research data, in a group setting the participant should be able to develop a Commercial Item Description in accordance with the Federal Standardization Manual and DoD 4120.24-M. |
| | Provided a list of Market Investigation Steps and a list of Activities Conducted, correctly match the activity with the investigation step and sequence of steps/activities |
| | Match the key steps in writing a CID. |
| | Given an example of requirements from a Commercial Item Description, edit for errors, correct any deficiencies, and provide a rationale for the correction(s). |