Directions

From Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport

Travel south on Route 1/Richmond Highway through Alexandria to Fort Belvoir. There are many traffic lights, fast food places, and gas stations. This business-district route is a slow trip. An alternate route (15.3 miles) would be to take scenic George Washington/Mt. Vernon Parkway (named Washington Street in town) south through Old Town Alexandria. From the airport's main terminal, follow the green highway signs toward Alexandria. Proceed along the Potomac River past Mt. Vernon, historic home of George Washington, until you get to the Route 1 intersection; turn left (south) on Route 1. Go up the hill 0.7 of a mile; turn left and go through the Main (Pence) Gate. If you don't have a current DoD vehicle sticker continue past the Main Gate and turn left at the next entrance (Tully Gate). Allow at least 30 minutes to get a base pass.

To get to Fort Belvoir from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport by using the "Metrorail" subway in combination with bus services. Take Metrorail to the Pentagon and transfer to bus 9A; be sure you have exact change for the bus. When you arrive at Fort Belvoir, exit at the intersections of either 18th Street and Gunston or 18th and Belvoir Road. (For more information, call the Metrorail at 202-637-7000.)

From the Maryland Side of the Beltway (Prince George's County)

Take the Beltway (I-495) across the Potomac River via the Woodrow Wilson Bridge and continue on I-495 to the exit for I-95. Go south on I-95 toward Richmond. (See From I-95 Traveling South.)

From Dulles Airport and/or Virginia Side of the Capital Beltway (Fairfax County)

Take the Dulles Access Road from Dulles Airport and exit on the Capital Beltway (I-495). Go south toward Alexandria and Richmond. As you reach the lower part of the Beltway, exit south on I-95 toward Richmond. (See From I-95 Traveling South.) (No Metrorail access.)

From I-95 Traveling South

Take this heavily congested interstate south until you are below Springfield, and take exit #166 onto Route 7100 (Newington/ Fort Belvoir exit). From this ramp you travel southeast on the Fairfax County Parkway (commonly known as Backlick Road) to Route 1/Richmond Highway. Turn left (north) onto Route 1 and about a quarter of a mile, where you will see the Fort Belvoir Tully Gate to your right. Enter this gate and get your pass. At the second traffic light go right on Gunston. Go left on 18th st. DAU is one block down between Middleton and Belvoir Road.

From Richmond I-95 Traveling North

Take I-95 north to the Fort Belvoir/Mt. Vernon exit. You will now be on Route 1/Richmond Highway.
Drive 6.4 miles to the Fort Belvoir Main (Tulley) Gate on the right.
